

Foreign Periodicals.

Replication of
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE FOREIGN QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact facsimile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor and forbearance not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory, and Radical—“Blackwood” and the “London Quarterly” are Tory; the “Edinburgh Review” Whig; and the “Westminster” Radical. The “Foreign Quarterly” is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.

The prices of the Periodicals are less than one third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader.

TERMS.
For any one of the four Reviews, $3.00 per annum.
For any two, do. 5.00 “
For any three, do. 7.00 “

N. B.—This Postage on all these Periodicals is reduced by the late Post-Office law, to about one third the former rates, making a very important saving in the expense to mail subscribers.

* In all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States to which there is a direct route, the Periodicals are sent by express, free of charge. These persons will be delivered FREE OF POSTAGE.

Beaton's Tetter and Ring-worm Ointment.

A safe and certain cure for Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, Barber's and Prairie Itch, Magg. Old Sores, &c.

It is highly recommended for open or ulcerated Scrofula and Leprosy. No class of diseases have ever been considered more difficult to cure than those of a cutaneous kind, and it will be conceded by all intelligent and candid physicians, that a knowledge of the nature and successful treatment of them is very limited and imperfect. It is notorious that many of these disorders have generally resisted all the ordinary means of cure. Hence the opinion so commonly prevalent, that they are incurable, and it is probable that before the discovery and introduction of Beaton's justly celebrated remedy this belief was well founded. But wherever this medicine has been known and used, it has shown this opinion to be erroneous—it has demonstrated the certainty of a radical cure in almost every case. The proprietor, therefore, considers this ointment as a specific for the complaints above enumerated.

This is no “quick” remedy, but really a certain and speedy cure; it has proved efficacious in every case, without a single exception, for the last three years, and invariably eradicates it in fourteen days, however inveterate or long standing. These assertions can be verified by reference to the numerous respectable families who have seen and felt its efficacy, and who have, from gratitude, offered their testimonials. It leaves neither smell nor stain, and contains nothing of an injurious quality.

1847 OR OLD '76.

YE that have eyes, read! Ye that have ears, listen! Ye that have legs run with all your might to the New York Cheap Store, (or Jew Store) in Glasgow, Howard county, Mo.

S. CHILDS & BROTHERS, have at last come to the astonishing conclusion, to sell off their present Stock of Goods at cost, for several good reasons.

First.—To make room for an extensive Stock of Spring and Summer Goods they are expecting with the first Steam boat. Secondly.—To unravel a mystery, which for a long time has puzzled their neighbor Merchants and even Customers, how they could sell their goods at such low prices, and build fine Store houses in the bargain.

But by selling off their present stock at Cost, the whole public can see that it does not require any magic power to sell as low as the Jew Store in Glasgow, but it only requires such arrangements, as that of purchasing Goods at such extraordinary and astonishing low prices as S. Childs & Bro's, for as long as the other Merchants go East but once or twice a year, and then some of them only as far as St. Louis, where they have to pay pretty dear for their whistles, they never need to cry out by Action, or private Sales, used to compete with S. Childs & Bro's, (or the Jew Store) in Glasgow. Now Friends, remember—that the Jew Store in Glasgow, has always undersold every Store on this side of St. Louis, and now selling off at Cost at such prices as will most assuredly astonish the natives, and their stock being as yet very extensive, you can suit yourselves in every thing you may wish, from Jew's hair down to a fine silk shawl or a gentleman's cloak, or from a side of sole leather up to a fine gold breast pin, &c., &c.

Now then, whoever wishes to put his money to a great deal better interest than the law allows, just call at the New York Cheap Store, or Jew Store, in their fine large new brick store house, in the upper end of town, where you can see in large letters on the front of the house the names of CHILDS & BROS. Come once—come all. No trouble to show goods.

P. S. We will take in exchange for goods Wheat, Hemp, Flaxseed, Beans, Peas, &c., &c., &c. Dry Hides, Furs of all kinds, Dried Fruit, &c., &c.

TO MERCHANTS, who wish to replenish their stock for Winter, Spring or Summer, we would say, that they would find it to their advantage to give the New York Cheap Store a call, for they will find that St. Louis can furnish either wholesale or retail.

He has a curiosity to feel like a wholesale merchant for a week or two, and therefore offers a few hundred pounds of sugar and sacks of coffee by the hoghead and sack. But he will retail all he can.
